

EL MIRADERO: 1974

★ Faculty ~ 1 Activities ~ 2 Sports ~ 3 Underclass ~ 4 Seniors ~ 5

El Miradero is published and financed by the members of the Bishop's Schools, La Jolla, California, and the advertisers.

As a pebble is dropped into a still and undisturbed pond, so a teacher plants the seed of knowledge in one's mind. The ripples of water which then surround and continue to expand, exemplify the students' unending experiences which begin at school and which all have some lasting effect. Just as the newly formed ripples continue to grow in size and number, both the insight and outlook of youth, as represented by these expanding circles, continue to grow as youth learns and matures. But, this never-ending growth is not confined to the individual; for as a youth matures, he will in some way impart his knowledge to others, and the influence of the original "seed" will continue to spread in the community. Throughout one's life, the original "seed" will benefit him and those around him.

Thus, the theme of El Miradero 1974 is one of expanding concentric circles as a representation of youth's mental and spiritual growth.

DEDICATED TO:

We, the students of The Bishop's Schools, dedicate this yearbook with our deep respect and admiration to Mr. Philip P. Perkins. As Headmaster of Bishop's, he has given guidance, encouragement, and understanding to us all. Wherever Mr. Perkins goes about the campus, his unique sense of humor livens the atmosphere. His concern for the welfare of the school and its student body, gives all of us a greater sense of unity.

There have been numerous constructive changes and improvements on our campus during Mr. Perkins' four years. Most significant is the joining of San Miguel with The Bishop's School. Our Headmaster has provided the guidance, knowledge, and hard work necessary to change smoothly and harmoniously, an all-girls school into a coordinate situation. He is San Miguel's biggest supporter, and has helped root them on to football and soccer championships.

To escape the monotony of the same daily class schedule, Mr. Perkins supported the updating of our scheduling system. Also, he has broadened our school's curriculum by offering a greater variety of courses, and he has improved the curriculum by building and retaining a superior faculty. In the boarding department, he has given the boarders a sense of responsibility and the freedom to exercise that responsibility.

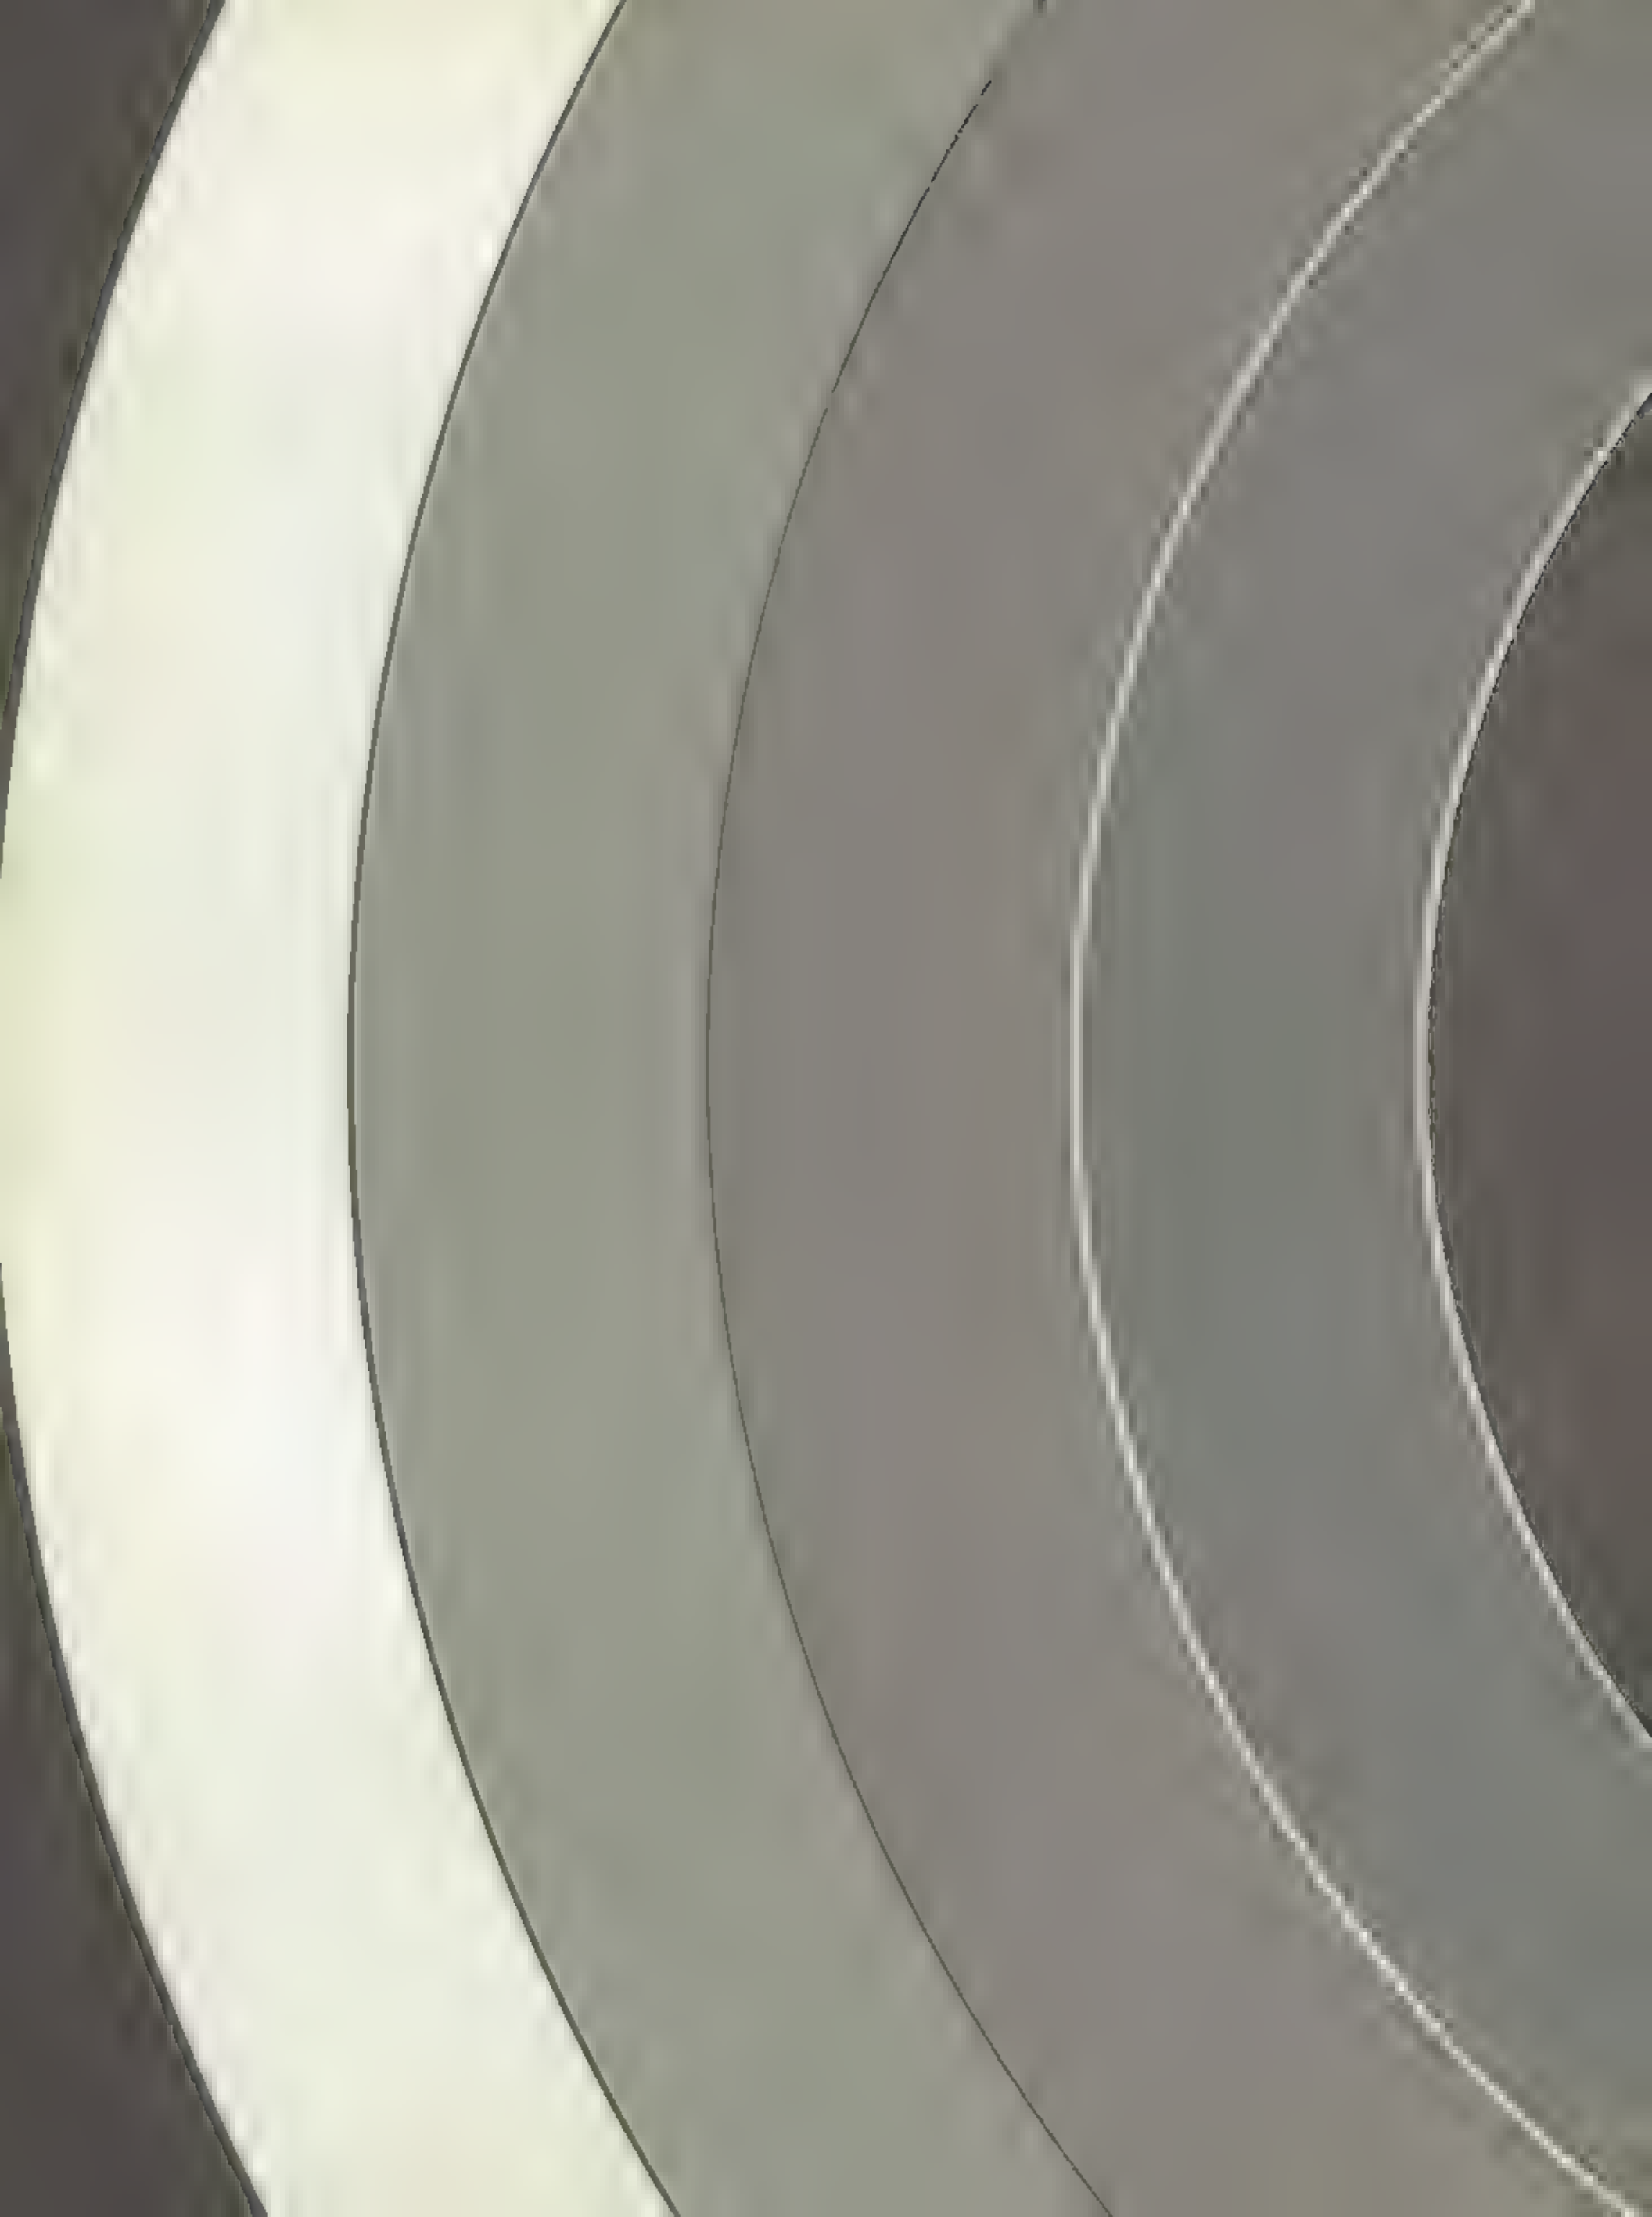

Our Headmaster's wife has been an asset to the school, whether advising the altar guild, teaching English classes, serving as a gracious hostess, or being a mother to all the boarders.

Mr. Perkins' leadership and guidance at The Bishop's Schools is the best illustration of our yearbook theme for 1974. All school life and activities revolve around the decisions and actions of our Headmaster. Therefore, during these past four years Mr. Perkins has been a great influence in our lives while here on the Bishop's campus. Though he is leaving us, his effect on us will be a continuing part of our lives.

Thank you for all that you have given us Mr. Perkins, and we all wish you the best of everything in the future.

DEFINITION OF AN ATHLETE

One who takes part in, or is capable of taking part in exercises or activities requiring mental agility, endurance, or strength

Webster's Dictionary

ATHLETES

one who has a natural aptitude for, or is reasonably skilled in physical exercises, sports or games

Webster's Dictionary

THE ATHLETES

On the following pages that illustrate girl's sports, the athlete herself will be stressed more than the team. It is the athlete who makes the team, and no one else. At the same time it is the athlete who makes the sport. By the use of quotations to illustrate, the true value of an athlete, and how valuable it is to be one, will be depicted.

San Miguel, led by one of the highest scoring offensive teams in Southern California and the most overpowering defensive teams, ran over its opponents to take first place in the 6-Man league. This was San Miguel's second year in the sport, and it was a vast improvement over last year. Led by the explosive running of Joe McKee and Peter Mohrhardt, the offensive team was unstoppable. The defense had let in the fewest amount of points of all four teams in the league.

Born in the country and I like that country smile.
Of the little boys and girls, they remind me of a child that I knew
And a big harvest moon that shone like supertime

Life is a series of experiences, in order, in time. Some in the future, some in the past, and one happening in the immeasurable piece of time that we call now.

Each experience makes you a more real and exciting person. No experience is good or bad, but all are necessary. To miss but one is not to have lived.

The man lives the experience, and the experience in turn makes the man.
